TESTIMONIALS

"After working with the team at FRD, it has been made clear that this company acts with the highest level of integrity, enthusiasm and passion. The level of respect, time and patience the team at FRD has shown towards my company and its clients its outstanding.

No question or task is ever too much for them. They go to the ends of the earth to provide a level of service that can not only leave your company in a better off position, but also leave your client feeling satisfied with the outcome. I would highly recommend using FRD for any of your wealth creation needs in the property investment industry."

Jarryd Fisher

"We recently had an investment property built using FRD Homes and couldn't be happier. We have built a home before using a major national brand in the past but won't go back.

FRD Homes made us feel like more than a job number and provided us with regular updates and images over the phone and email. We will definitely use them again and will refer them to family and friends."

N. Stevenson

"My company, AusPro Inspections, was formed to fill the need in the building industry for a totally independent, unbiased handover inspection report, that is designed to work with builders ensuring their new homes are finished to a high standard. We carry out practical completion inspections for some of South East Queensland's largest builders and developers.

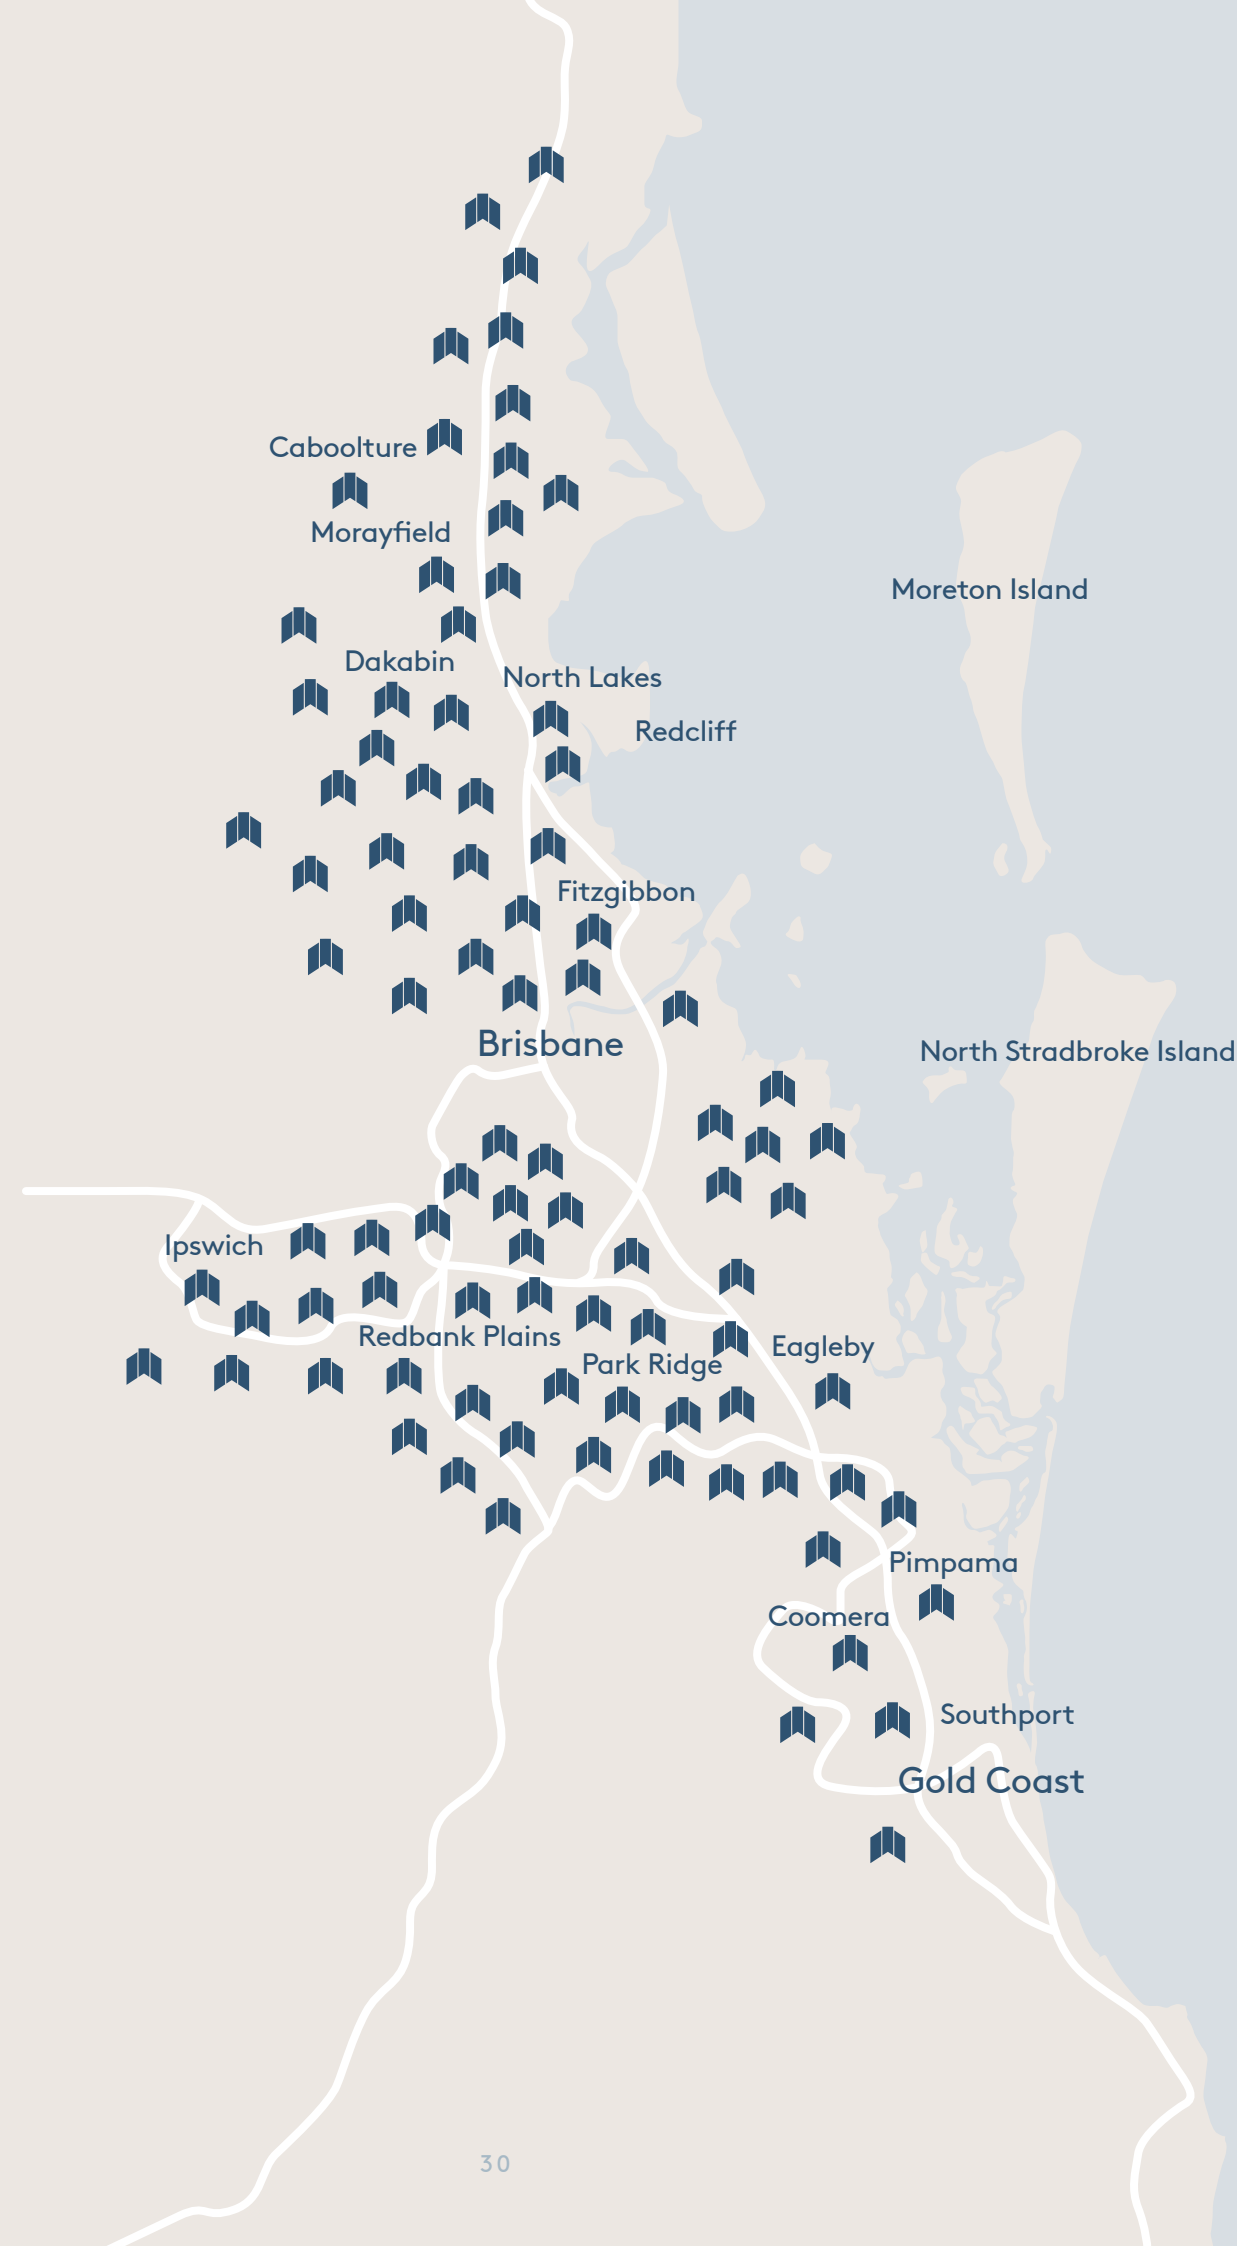

It is a pleasure to carry out inspections for FRD Homes as each home is consistently of a very high standard with an attention to detail which exceeds industry standards in quality and finish."

Jeff Weston

"Absolutely nothing – that's what I have to do to keep my FRD property portfolio in order. The team at FRD do absolutely everything, from finding the best places to invest, to building the home, and making sure my rent is paid each and every week.

Being a remote worker it is important for me to know that my property is being looked after and routine repairs and maintenance is kept up to date. Easy."
